

The Hurricane Island Center for Science and Leadership is a transformative learning community on Hurricane Island in Penobscot Bay, Maine. Our mission is to integrate science education, applied research, and leadership development through year-round educational programs and a seasonal, environmentally-sustainable island community. Through experiential education programs and research opportunities in STEM disciplines we aim to excite people about doing science and about being leaders in the next wave of scientific discovery and environmental conservation.

HICSL is seeking a Cook for the 2019 on island season from April 15 through mid October. This person lives and works on Hurricane Island as a Cook in HICSL's energetic and fun campus kitchen. The cook will be responsible for preparation and serving of 3 meals a day for an island community of 40-60 people, as well as periodic special events such as Farm to Table dinners and Board/Donor events. This person must reflect HICSL's core mission of leadership and sustainability, through positive energy and enthusiasm for sustainable food practices and systems. The cook will work closely with the Kitchen Manager/Head Cook to ensure health and safety standards are met.

Specific Responsibilities

- Responsible for food preparation and service of 3 meals a day for an island community of 40-60 people, in addition to special events such as Farm to Table dinners and Board/Donor events, with support from other kitchen staff.
- Build and maintain an open and welcoming environment in the kitchen that is in-line with HICSL's core values and that supports a diverse educational learning community.
- Work with Kitchen Manager/Head Cook to ensure that all dietary needs and food allergies are addressed, as well as attention to variety, nutrition, and food group balance.
- Work with Kitchen Manager/Head Cook in food ordering and to organize food deliveries to the island.
- Ensure Maine Food Code, health and sanitation regulations are being followed and enforced.
- Maintain kitchen cleanliness, food storage, and overall organization of the kitchen, including washing dishes.
- Manage program participants involvement in washing dishes and kitchen clean-up.
- Troubleshoot and problem solve any issues that arise regarding food preparation and service.
- Participate as a full member of HICSL's island- and land- based professional community including:
  - Following and enforcing campus policies and community expectations.
  - Participating in community tasks including daily and weekly chores.
  - Performing other duties relating to the organization's goals and mission as required.
